There is a lead time of three days for us to get the product from Curium, at least that is what they set up originally. That may get relaxed as the product takes off. Orders for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday must be placed the Friday prior. Orders for Thursday must be placed by Monday. Orders for Friday must be placed by Tuesday. We will need to wait for FedEx delivery if we order for Friday so doses will need to be calibrated for 10 am on Fridays at the very earliest.
